

DGS Employee of the Week: Norrien Dorsey

The Department of General Services (DGS) is pleased to feature Norrien Dorsey as Employee of the Week. Norieen, who currently serves as a Security Gard in the Annapolis Capital Complex, started her career with DGS 15 years ago.

She serves in various capacities around the complex, rotating as an officer from the State House to the other State buildings in the area – checking people through metal detectors, ensuring that windows and doors are secured and generally directing people to their destinations.

“I guess the thing I enjoy most about the job is that I am a “people” person,” Norieen said, noting that she works part time as a cashier at Graul’s Supermarket in Annapolis when not working for DGS. Many times people will see her at her part-time job and remark that she resembles a police officer at the State House. Before she joined DGS she worked a Rite Aid in downtown Annapolis.

In her rare free time, Norieen, an Annapolis native, enjoys walking, spending time with her two grandchildren and driving her mother to various appointments. She has three children, two of whom are in the Army Reserves with one son who served a tour of duty in Iraq.

The Maryland Department of General Services thanks Norieen for all of her hard work and dedication toward making the Department successful in carrying on the tradition of Doing Great Service!
